

Antique Fireplace Charles X Paolo Moschini '800 Ebony Elm Lombardy, XIX Century

3 500 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Ebony

Width : 144

Height : 112

Depth : 19.5

Description

Charles X fireplace entirely veneered in elm root, Lombardy, third decade of the 19th century. Attributable to the production of Paolo Moschini, a skilled inlayer and cabinetmaker active between Soncino, his hometown, and Milan in the first half of the nineteenth century. Front with architrave and projecting plinths, connected by double columns finely fluted and embellished with gilded wooden capitals, the upper ones of which are carved with frets and acanthus leaves. Base and architrave edges threaded in amaranth, threaded column profiles in ebony. Central mercury mirror placed within the frame.

Dealer

Di Mano in Mano

Antiquités

Mobile : +39 3333273611

Viale Espinasse 97-99

Milano 20156