

---

19th Century George III Period Mahogany Tall Whatnot Music Stand

3 300 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Mahogany

Width : 45.5

Height : 174.5

Depth : 45.5

Description

A Tall Charming Early 19th Century George III Period Mahogany Three-Tier Cupboard Whatnot Music Stand. A quality, early 19th-century George III period, well-figured mahogany three-tier cupboard whatnot. The square top is decorated with turned finials over three galleried solid mahogany shelves, supported by elegant ring turned columns, above a lockable cupboard with a fielded panel enclosing a shelved interior and raised on small turned legs. In good original condition and dating from 1800. In terms of condition, this tall whatnot music stand is in excellent original condition, boasting a rich patina on the solid mahogany, which speaks to its quality craftsmanship and the care it has received over the years. The figured mahogany exhibits a rich, warm patina, enhancing its visual appeal.

Dealer

Anthony Short Antiques

18C & 19C Fine Period Antiques, Decorative Furniture & Works of Art

Tel : 00 44 7595603348

Mobile : 00 44 7595603348

Market Square

Petworth GU28 0AH

This shelf or whatnot is not only a testament to exceptional Georgian craftsmanship but also a striking example of classic design, making it an ideal piece for any refined interior.