

17th-century Spanish School (1600-1700) -- The Nativity

15 000 EUR

Signature : Ecole Espagnole

Period : 17th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Oil painting on wood

Description

Nativity Oil on panel, set within an architectural entablature of carved and gilded wood, incorporating a painted predella depicting two saints (probably Saint Francis of Assisi and Saint Jerome). On the back: traces of labels, notably a label "Caminos de hierro del Norte" 81 x 77 cm
Provenance: Private collection, Southern France
Architectural frame with painted predella:
Ancient structure (type of altarpiece or religious fireplace) in molded and gilded wood, incorporating a horizontal painted panel representing two saints: Saint Francis of Assisi (stigmata, brown habit, mystical elevation) Saint Jerome (bearded ascetic, bare-chested, skull in hand) These two figures reinforce the spiritual significance of the central theme.

Dealer

Galerie Alexis Pentcheff
19th & 20th centuries paintings
Mobile : 0682729579

10 Chemin du Génie
Marseille 13007