Description

Charming watercolor on paper, framed in a giltwood. The painting depicts a view of the Essex countryside, with the town of Prittlewell, as noted at the bottom left. The work features houses, fields, a pond, and figures seated, walking, or herding oxen. In the distance, a city can be seen, characterized by a Gothic bell tower clearly visible in the center of the painting. This watercolor offers a beautiful pictorial and stylistic rendering, adding a touch of class and antiquity to any setting. It was created by the English School of the second half of the 19th century (ca. 1881). Dimensions: H x W x D overall 50 x 66 x 6cm; H x W work only 40 x 57cm
