Description

This work was created by Charles Fouqueray. It depicts figures wearing caps, forcing others to bathe. The distinctive style of Charles Fouqueray is clearly evident here. The work is in superb condition. Charles Fouqueray (1869-1956), this multifaceted artist, was a great traveler, appointed official painter to the Ministry of the Navy in 1908. His travels took him primarily to the Middle East and Asia. He brought back thousands of watercolor sketches from these journeys, which would later inspire his paintings. His work is inspired by historical events. Our photos allow you to appreciate the quality of the object. For condition, please carefully examine the photos. Feel free to zoom in.
