Description

Napoleon III desk, late 19th century, restored in our workshop and in perfect condition (cabinetmaker graduated from the École Boulle 33 years ago). It features a central drawer and two doors opening to reveal six drawers. The marquetry is of elm burl and mahogany. There are attractive bronze mounts on the doors and keyhole escutcheons. Two pull-out slides on each side extend the desk. The leather can be replaced; please request a quote. It can be disassembled for transport.
