Description

Original antique frame from the 17th century (17th-century Baroque style), entirely silver-plated and featuring a double scroll carving. It has never been tampered with or restored and is being sold as found. The hanging hook is also original. Distinctive for its octagonal shape, it has numerous inactive woodworm holes. Shipping to be arranged prior to purchase, guaranteed professional packaging and a trusted courier. Local pickup is available, payment accepted: bank transfer.
