Description

Rare Bordeaux fine earthenware meat service with the Nella pattern, featuring Japanese-inspired bird and flower motifs on each piece. The platter and plates have grooves and indentations to retain juices. The polychrome decorations are hand-painted with exquisite finesse and vibrant colors. The harmonious composition includes perched birds such as parrots and kingfishers, as well as various insects: butterflies, dragonflies, and ladybugs. Delicate flowers include water lilies, lotuses, carnations, anemones, prunus blossoms, dahlias, roses, and irises. The white background is highlighted with a cobalt blue border. The entire set is in perfect condition. Created by the Bordeaux manufacturer Vieillard & Cie in the 1870s, this harmonious style evokes both 18th-century naturalistic
