Dutch Masterwork Desk/writing Desk With Floral Marquetry, Early 19th Century

1 500 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Marquetry

Width : pied 47 cm / abattant 37 cm

Height : 36 cm

Depth : pied 31,5 cm / abattant ouvert 50 cm

Description

A Dutch master's desk/scriban, in rosewood and various wood veneers, richly decorated with floral baskets and other flowers and foliage, opening to reveal a drawer at the bottom, a drop-front revealing compartments and small drawers, finely chased gilt bronze mounts, dating from the early 19th century. This piece is in good condition and of remarkable quality. We have its key. Two pull-out slides protrude from the front to support the open drop-front. Please note: a small chip and loss of veneer on the front side of the drawer, a few small cracks, minor losses of marquetry, scratches, and signs of age; please examine the photos carefully. Dimensions: Height 36 cm, Width of base 47 cm / drop-front 37 cm, Depth of base 31.5 cm / drop-front open 50 cm. Reference: 1A013. All photos are

Dealer

Luc de Laval Antiquités
Ancient furnitures, Collectibles 18th, 19th www.antiques-delaval.com
Tel : 02.96.12.19.02
Mobile : 06.09.70.26.39

22 rue Colvestre - BP 26
Tréguier 22220

available at: www.antiques-delaval.com

https://www.proantic.com/en/1643834-dutch-masterwork-deskwriting-desk-with-floral-marquetry-early-19th-century.html