Description

"Maternity," in the style of Antonio Martini, 1950s/1960s
Anonymous, "Maternity" Italy, 1950s/1960s - in the style of Antonio Martini
Description: Elegant bronze-colored patinated resin sculpture depicting Motherhood, with a mother wrapped in a large cloak welcoming and protecting two children. The work, with its stylized and intimate language, refers to the plastic poetics of Antonio Martini, interpreter of an intimate and solemn sculpture, attentive to form and the spirituality of gesture. The figure stands on a geometric stone base, which accentuates its verticality and monumentality, harmoniously balancing its proportions.
Materials: Bronze-colored patinated resin, natural stone base
Period: 1950s/1960s
Subject: Motherhood
Style: Antonio
