Description

An 18-karat gold case. It is entirely enameled. The reserves feature scenes of young children and couples. A lamb gazes upon the temple of love, upon which rest two flaming hearts surmounted by a dove. The dog of fidelity sits in a rose garden, overflown by two doves. These are the decorations that complete this precious object. The backgrounds are adorned with black and lavender-blue enamel, decorated with floral baskets and ribbons. This case surely contained small love notes intended for a beloved. Height: 11 cm Weight: 20 g Probably Swiss work from the late 18th century
