Description

Florentine marquetry from the early 19th century. The exquisite detail features meticulously executed veneer joints. Their expertise is undeniable, a hallmark of their craft. The four figures depict scenes of life around Florence. The woods used are cherry, ebony, walnut, poplar, mahogany, beech, and sycamore. The small, molded, black lacquered frame adds further contrast. The entire piece has been scraped, sanded, and French polished to reveal its full brilliance. Delivery is available but not included in the price.
