Description

Octagonal sundial made of thick slate, previously installed (see traces of cement on the back). Beautiful slate carving with a coat of arms that has likely been erased. A finely engraved and decorated slate sundial, with understated elegance. The gnomon, gnomon, or shadow holder is not original, of course, but this does not detract from the inherent charm of this object. A beautiful, large slate sundial. Dimensions: 37 cm x 37 cm with a substantial thickness. We deliver and ship worldwide; please contact us for a precise quote.
