Description

Superb set of antique pure linen napkins of exceptional refinement, originating from an estate's linen collection. Each napkin features a finely embroidered monogram "HA," executed by hand with great elegance. The damask is of rare delicacy, with a motif of intertwined foliage, birds, and ribbons, reminiscent of grand hunting damasks and late 19th-century designs. The luminous and tight weave highlights the reflections of the antique linen bleached in natural light. Dimensions: 90 cm x 72 cm. Condition: Perfect condition, a carefully preserved collector's item, without wear or alterations. Period: Late 19th century. General Terms: Free delivery to a relay point (mainland France). Colissimo surcharge: +EUR10. International delivery upon request. Returns accepted within 15 days.
