Description

"Journey to the Heart of a Village" (56x46cm)
The light is bathed in vibrant colors, alternating between rosy tones and sunlight. On the right, a fabric vendor's draped pergola carefully provides shade; in the center, figures sit around a table under a tent; on the left, buildings bathed in light offer perspective. In the background, market stalls are visible. Only the trees soften the painting's impact. This scene is frozen in time, like a postcard or a photograph. The original white-gray frame adds depth and contrast. The piece evokes a return to one's roots for some and an invitation to travel for others. Delivery is possible but not included in the price.
