Description

Watercolor on paper, "The Borsari Gate in Verona," signed lower left G. Pavolani. Italian School. 29.5 x 19 cm (sight size) (47 x 37 cm overall). G. Pavolani (19th-20th centuries). A beautiful depiction of the Porta Borsari in Verona, Veneto. The gate dates from the 1st century AD and was once the main entrance to the city. It appears that a postcard depicting this iconic Verona gateway was produced based on this watercolor. Contemporary painted and gilded wood and stucco frame. Good condition. 550 euros.
