

Elegant Biscuit Porcelain Bowl From The Napoleon III Era

800 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Biscuit

Length : 45

Height : 27

Description

An elegant biscuit porcelain bowl, Napoleon III period, finely carved in the form of a chariot drawn by a lion, adorned with garlands and a winged putto. Delicate and refined work, typical of Second Empire decorative production. The gilt-decorated mount is in perfect condition, with a slight patina from use--it would benefit from a simple cleaning. Excellent overall condition, with a small chip on the handle and foot (see photos).
Length: 45 cm - Height: 27 cm
