Description

This vibrant oil on canvas by Catalan painter Josep Sarquella i Escobet captures the lively energy of sailboats moored in a Mediterranean harbor. Sarquella's signature style--expressive brushwork, luminous color, and a fluid, gestural rhythm--imbues the scene with immediacy and motion. The sails, rendered in soft yellows and violets, shimmer against a turquoise sea that reflects the changing coastal light of the Costa Brava. His use of quick, confident strokes and saturated hues evokes the fleeting brilliance of sun and water, while maintaining a sense of compositional harmony. Rooted in the Mediterranean Post-Impressionist tradition, the painting conveys the artist's lifelong fascination with maritime life and his mastery in translating atmosphere into color and texture.
