Description

Chinese Blue and White Porcelain Snuff Bottle -
Early 20th Century

A fine hand-painted porcelain snuff bottle, decorated in underglaze blue with a continuous mountain landscape featuring pine trees and scholar figures. The cylindrical body tapers gently towards the neck, beneath a gilt-brass mount set with a red glass cabochon stopper. The base bears a two-character mark Zheng Ya (??), meaning "upright and elegant," commonly used as an auspicious inscription during the Republic period (ca. 1915-1935).

Details:

Material: Porcelain with underglaze cobalt blue decoration

Stopper: Red glass cabochon with gilt-brass fitting and original cork plug
