Description

Slightly trapezoidal in shape, this substantial fountain body is inspired by Gothic reliquaries. It features an architectural relief decoration with a roof serving as a lid. Four arcades, where draped figures stand, are framed by columns, windows, and pinnacles. On the front of the Directoire-style roof, two angels flank a cross within an oval. The tap at the base is shaped like a stylized shell. Thick white glazed earthenware. Height 42 cm - width 31 to 33 cm - depth 12 cm. Several chips, losses, and a crack in the back.
