Description

Large bronze sculpture after Pietro Tacca by Fernando Sánchez Castillo. Impressive bronze sculpture after the original by Pietro Tacca, created in Florence for King Philip IV of Spain. This 20th-century reinterpretation is the work of the renowned Spanish sculptor Fernando Sánchez Castillo, known for his works exploring power, history, and collective memory. The work brilliantly captures the Baroque grandeur and dynamism of Tacca's original, while reinterpreting them through a contemporary artistic lens. Dimensions: Height 55 cm, Width 33 cm, Depth 1 cm. A striking and thought-provoking work that bridges classical tradition and modern reinterpretation.
