Description

I present to you an exceptional solid bronze sculpture, a work by one of the greatest artists of the 19th century: Alexandre Falguière (1831-1900). Entitled "Mignon," this creation embodies all the gentleness and emotional depth that characterize the work of this master. With an imposing height of 87 cm, it stands out as a centerpiece, capable of enhancing any space. What immediately strikes the eye is the brown patina that envelops the sculpture, giving it a unique warmth and authenticity. This patina, developed over time, testifies to a high-quality antique casting, carefully preserved. The state of preservation of this work is remarkable, which is rare for a piece of this period. Alexandre Falguière, celebrated for his striking realism and his ability to capture the soul of his subjects, brought "Mignon" to life with anatomical precision and rare expressiveness. The details are exceptionally fine: the delicate facial features, the finely sculpted strands of hair, and the folds of the clothing that appear almost lifelike. Every element testifies to the artist's unparalleled talent. This sculpture is much more than a simple decorative object: it is a work of art in its own right, a cultural legacy that transcends centuries. It will appeal to lovers of classical art, passionate collectors, and anyone seeking an exceptional piece for their home. By acquiring "Mignon," you are not simply purchasing a sculpture, but becoming the guardian of a piece of artistic history. Such a rare and well-preserved piece is a unique opportunity not to be missed. MORE PHOTOS AND INFORMATION BY FOLLOWING THIS LINK:
