Description

Magnificent bronze sculpture in the Greek style depicting Apollo, god of music and the arts, holding a lyre. An impressive Italian work from the 1950s, this monumental piece illustrates the enduring influence of classical mythology on mid-20th-century sculpture. Finely cast in bronze with beautiful details and a rich patina, the figure expresses with grace and power, true to the spirit of Apollo. Weighing approximately 150 kg, it is an oversized centerpiece for a garden, gallery, or large indoor space. Dimensions: Height 250 cm (98.4 in), Width 60 cm (23.6 in), Depth 70 cm (27.6 in). A stunningly decorated room is a claude inspired by mid-century Italian craftsmanship.
