Description

This charming bottle is made of translucent green enamel over paillons, decorated on both sides with a bouquet of different flowers within a white-ground medallion, framed in gold enamel with a shell pediment. Its rim is adorned with a frieze of quatrefoils in gold paillons under the enamel. The hinged stopper is made of finely repoussé and chased vermeil. It is suspended by a thin, flat chain. The small, emery-polished inner stopper is present and not stuck! Boar's head hallmark. VERY GOOD CONDITION! Napoleon III period, circa 1850. Note: A discreet crack in the enamel on the hinge side and a small restoration to the lower right corner of this side. We offer a silver bail set with sparkling cubic zirconia stones so you can wear it as a pendant or add it to a necklace! Dimensions: 5.4cm x 2.2cm
