Description

Pair of hand-colored lithographs, circa 1840. An elegant pair of engravings signed F. Grenier, depicting scenes of rural life in the vicinity of Naples. These delicate compositions, executed with great finesse, poetically capture the light and gentleness of the Italian landscape. The figures of peasants, children, and fishermen express all the picturesque charm of 19th-century Italy, so dear to French Romantic artists. Superbly presented in their period giltwood frames, with a warm and authentic patina. A tasteful, decorative work full of character. Artist: F. Grenier (active circa 1830-1850) Period: circa 1840 Technique: hand-colored lithograph Subject: rural scenes - vicinity of Naples Condition: good original condition, some foxing, one frame is damaged and the glass is missing
