Description

An impressive set of four cast iron figures symbolizing the Four Seasons, made in Italy in the 1950s. Each statue is finely detailed, revealing expressive drapery and classical features typical of mid-20th-century Italian craftsmanship, inspired by antique sculpture. With their monumental dimensions and elegant patina, these figures make a striking decorative element, ideal for gardens, courtyards, or large interior spaces. Dimensions (each, approximate): Height 250 cm, Width 60 cm, Depth 60 cm. A magnificent, timeless set of Italian cast iron sculptures, celebrating classical beauty through the allegory of the Four Seasons.
