

19th-century Horizontal Bronze Sundial, After Erasmus Habermel

2 600 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Bronze

Description

This 19th-century horizontal bronze sundial is a remarkable piece. It is inspired by the designs of Erasmus Habermel (c. 1538-1606, Prague), one of the most celebrated instrument makers of the late Renaissance. This piece faithfully reflects the scientific precision and aesthetic refinement characteristic of Habermel's original instruments, combining functional accuracy, ornamental engraving, and elegant proportions. Dimensions: 14 × 10 × 10 cm
