PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Paris 18th Century - Apothecary - Cannon Jar

140 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Earthenware

Height : 22 cm

Description

PARIS - Early 19th Century Alum Powder Cannon Pot APOTHECARY Ref. 25/G/73 Curved cylindrical pot with white slip. Large decoration of a cartouche of foliage entwined with two stylized flowers. In dark cobalt blue and manganese. Phylactery: "P.ALUNINA". Pharmacopoeia: The inscription "P. ALUNINA" for Pulvis Alunina or Alum Powder is a mineral pharmaceutical preparation, composed of powdered alum, sometimes mixed with other salts or vegetable powders depending on the intended use. Ancient medical uses: Astringent: tightens tissues and reduces secretions. Hemostatic: stops minor bleeding (nosebleeds, small cuts). Antiseptic: disinfects wounds or ulcers. Cosmetic: powder to soothe irritation after shaving or perspiration. Height: 22 cm. Good

Dealer

F.C. Concepts
ANTIC DEALER
Tel : 0603310311
Mobile : 0603310311

26 route de Dijon
Ville-sous-la-Ferté 10310

condition. Origin: Important collection of a passionate pharmacist. Shipping via secure Colissimo. All of France: EUR15. International: Contact us.