Description

A very charming pair of small, chased bronze candlesticks from the early 19th century (Directoire period). They are known as toilet candlesticks because they were placed there to provide light during ablutions. In good condition, they are drilled for electrification. Dimensions: height 12 cm, base diameter 8 cm. Find us on Instagram: mon_futur_anterieur and on our website antiquites-monfuturanterieur.fr
