Description

Large Auvergne wine taster in solid silver, known as a "Tassou," with a plain design and serpent handle, the rim engraved "I. ROUSAT."

Hallmarked for ORLEANS 1775-81, the common hallmark for MOULINS 1775 (a crowned R), and hallmarks (body and handle) of the master silversmith Louis ROUX (hallmark with the initials "LR" and a crowned cross above a heart), authorized to work in Moulins. This large Auvergne wine taster from the rare Moulins mint is in very good condition and well hallmarked, with minor scratches from use. For the discerning collector... Diameter (excluding handle): 8.9 cm Length (including handle): 11.8 cm Weight of the wine taster: 122.7 grams
