Description

Early 20th-century solid oak table in the Louis XV style; elegant cabriole legs and shaped stretchers, all pegged. The top has been intentionally left in its natural wood finish but can be stained and waxed like the base upon request. In perfect condition and very stable, inspected in our workshops. This table is unique in its dimensions and can be used as a dining table, meeting table, work table, or kitchen table. Please note that due to its size, this table could only be photographed in the workshop. Viewings available upon request. Delivery possible via specialized transport upon request and quote.
