Description

Pair of Brutalist lamps in raw glass with beige shades, 1960s. Elegant table lamps with a stem composed of stacked glass plates, creating a beautiful prismatic effect and a soft diffusion of light. Chromed metal central stem, black rectangular base, and ecru fabric rectangular shade for a simple and chic look. Mid-century aesthetic: geometric lines, noble materials, decorative presence without ostentation. Perfect on a console table, sideboard, or bedside tables, they bring a bright and graphic touch to the interior. Discover all our other products on our website: www.llantiquites.com
