Description

Nesting tables in the style of Maison Baguès, 1940s. Elegant trio of nesting tables with a neoclassical design: fluted legs ending in small sabots, openwork knots/apples at the junction of the stretcher--details typical of the Baguès aesthetic. Patinated brass/bronze frames, tabletops framed with glass for a sophisticated look. Late Art Deco/Parisian Neoclassical spirit: clean lines, noble materials, balanced proportions. Perfect as end tables, around an armchair, or together as a coffee table. Discover all our other products on our website: www.llantiquites.com
