Description

Art Deco Rosewood Veneer Side Table in the Style of Eugène Printz, 1930s. This elegant side table features an octagonal top and matching base, supported by two solid legs framing a practical niche. The rosewood veneer boasts a deep, silky grain, typical of the exotic woods prized in the 1930s. The understated design, with its architectural volumes, recalls the aesthetic of Eugène Printz: harmonious proportions, clean lines, and high-quality craftsmanship. A decorative and functional piece, perfect as an end table or side table in a contemporary or classic interior. Discover all our other products on our website: www.lantiquites.com
