Description

Superb and rare 17th-century Spanish Renaissance walnut table. It features an exceptional (museum-quality) base decorated with acanthus leaves, a partially open sculpted part (uncommon), and sculpted top and bottom frieze. This table can serve as a desk, dining table, or large console table, its great advantage being the absence of crossbars, which provides a lot of legroom. beautiful walnut top with a thickness of 4 cm and a wrought-iron spacer typical of Spanish tables. The table has a beautiful patina and is in superb condition Delivery available in Belgium, France, and internationally. Viewable in our showroom at 41 Rue Henri Wafelaerts, 1060 Brussels, Belgium. More information and photos available upon request.
