Description

Two Sèvres porcelain plates. Marked in blue with the last two digits of the year inside. For 1823. The two plates are from the service delivered by the Sèvres factory to Count Jean-Claude Beugnot, Minister of Finance under Jérôme Bonaparte. Yellow ground, brown palettes, central motifs of fruit and oil. Wear to the gilding on the two central motifs. Two small chips on the base of one plate. Good condition, no repairs. The rim decoration is in perfect condition, as is the laurel frieze. Authentic Sèvres factory plates from the period. Shipping via Colissimo registered mail included in the price. Carefully packaged.
