Description

Bust of a man crowned with laurels. Alabaster, 18th century, in the style of Antiquity. Superb alabaster bust depicting a bearded man, crowned with laurels, a symbol of glory and wisdom. This work belongs to the tradition of souvenirs from the Grand Tour, those initiatory journeys undertaken by young European aristocrats to perfect their culture. Brought back from Italy, these busts embodied the passion of the era for Antiquity and the cult of great minds. This finely sculpted alabaster model testifies to the enlightened taste of 18th-century collectors. Italy, 18th century. Carved alabaster.
