Description

Charming Louis XV style bed in natural wood with button tufting. It rests on four scrolled, snail-shaped legs topped with a small flower. The headboard is attractively shaped and adorned at the center of the top with a pretty floral design. It is button-tufted on its inner face. The footboard is also shaped but features additional carving on the lower rail. It is upholstered on both sides. The two rails connecting the headboard and footboard are shaped and decorated in the center with a floral motif. This bed has been recently reupholstered and is therefore in perfect condition. The upholstery fabric is a light sand-yellow color tending towards beige, with a raised floral pattern. The frame is robust and very stable. Easy assembly, it is assembled using four lag bolts. It is designed for a standard 140 cm x
