Description

Charming "Wildflowers" vase in enameled glass by Legras. A very fine example of Legras' work, this vase on a pedestal features a fluted stem and a neck decorated with hand-crafted wavelets.

Note the delicate flowers and rich colors against a background of graduated purples. The entire piece is highlighted with gold at the neck. In very good condition, with no enamel loss, 25 cm high, circa 1880-1900. A luminous and exquisitely crafted piece.
