Description

Superb bread plate from Maison Haviland, Dammouse Collection. 1 plate available. The Dammouse collection is a true ode to floral beauty and Orientalism. Inspired by Japanese prints and silks, its designs are distinguished by floral motifs enhanced with touches of gold, capturing the essence of a precious and delicate nature. It bears the name of its creator, the talented decorator Édouard Dammouse, inspired by a watercolor he created for Haviland around 1880. A renowned painter and engraver, he joined the famous Atelier d'Auteuil in Paris, founded by Haviland at the end of the 19th century. Near mint condition, a few micro-scratches. Marks on the back of the plates.
