Description

A superb Art Deco rosewood bar, dating from the 20th century, combining aesthetic refinement and functional ingenuity. This piece, typical of the Art Deco style, features clean geometric lines and beautiful symmetry, characteristic of this period when luxury was expressed through the purity of forms and the nobility of materials. Its ingenious opening mechanism reveals a carefully arranged interior: compartments for bottles and glasses, light wood surfaces contrasting with the dark rosewood, and a top surface enhanced with a mirror. This system, both practical and spectacular, allows the piece to transform from a compact unit into an elegant display bar. Once open, the bar measures 112 cm wide x 88.5 cm high, offering ample space for presentation and service.
