Description

Magnificent lacquered wood panel, entitled "Spring," a modern artwork from the 20th century. This large-scale composition (2.40 m long by 1.19 m high) captivates with its decorative refinement and delicate colors. The scene, bathed in a peaceful and poetic atmosphere, depicts young women moving through a verdant landscape, a symbol of renewal and the gentleness of spring. The fluid lines, rhythmic composition, and luminous hues recall the influence of Asian art and Western modernism, fused in subtle balance. Created using paint on lacquered wood, this panel demonstrates precise craftsmanship and a distinct taste for decorative works. The four sections can be assembled to form a large mural or displayed separately, depending on the space and desired
