Description

Pair of Mahogany Art Nouveau display counters with Glass Vitrines An exceptional pair of identical freestanding Art Nouveaudisplay counters in richly polished mahogany, originally designed for ajewellery boutique. Each counter features elegant, rounded ends and flowing, sinuous lines characteristic of the Art Nouveau period. The upper section comprises a vitrine display case with curved and bevelled cut-glass panels and top, allowing for an elegant presentation of jewellery or other fine objects. Below, the counters are fitted with multiple drawers adorned with finely cast gilt-bronze handles, providing both beauty and practicality. Beautifully detailed on all sides, these counters were conceived to stand freely in the room or dressing room, making them
