Description

Magnificent pair of cloisonné vases with polychrome decoration of stylized floral motifs on a turquoise blue ground. Finely chased French gilt bronze mounts, dating from the Napoleon III period, rest on bases adorned with elephant heads, typical of the Orientalist taste of the Second Empire. Each mount features an "H" stamped on three corners of the base. Good overall condition. Dimensions: 38 cm high, 22 cm diameter at the base, and 8 cm diameter at the neck.
