

Fireman's Helmet, Officer Model 1821. Louis Philippe.

1 200 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Material : Other

Description

Entirely made of brass. The base of the helmet is bordered at the front and back by a band decorated with raised moldings. The movable visor is embossed with two crossed axes linked by a ribbon, framed by laurel branches. The neck guard is edged with a folded rush, straddling its outer border. The crest has wings embossed with six gadroons and a mask decorated with a flaming bomb; it is surmounted by a caterpillar made of black horsehair. The brass front plate is embossed with a Gallic rooster on a globe, placed on a shield marked "Sapeur Pompier" (Firefighter), itself resting on a shield with crossed axes, a torch, and a grenade, and with a ribbon bearing the inscription "Commune de Chassericourt" (Commune of Chassericourt) against a background of bundles of flags. Brass chin straps

Dealer

Le grenier du passé présent
Antiquité. Généraliste.

Tel : 0323700142

1 rue du Gué

Pavant 02310

composed of two chin pieces with rosettes: each chin piece consists of a brass plate stamped with scalloped scales in relief, and a round rosette stamped with gadroons in relief. Plume holder with a square cross-section tapering towards the bottom, with a tightening screw. Original, period-correct plume belonging to a fire officer. Good overall condition, but the inner lining is missing. There is a crack on the front plate and some minor losses, visible in photo #7.- This item is available for immediate purchase, payable via PayPal. We also accept bank transfers or French checks.- We do not accept sales by phone; sales are conducted exclusively via email or through the Proantic messaging system.- We ensure careful shipping of our items, with insurance and tracking. Shipping for Europe Union EUR25 via Colissimo.