

Flintlock Rifle Of A Horse Grenadier Of The Imperial Guard, First Empire. France.

7 750 EUR

Signature : Premier Empire

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Other

Length : 1,44 m

Width : -

Diameter : -

Height : -

Depth : /

Description

Flintlock musket of a Horse Grenadier of the Imperial Guard. First Empire. This musket model was created in Thermidor Year XII, during the reorganization of the Imperial Guard; around 1808. Barrel, Year IX model, octagonal at the breech then round. All brass furniture with a buttplate specific to the Imperial Guard with a return depicting a flaming grenade, stamped with the "D" of the controller Deschasseaux. The furniture is held in place by steel springs. Stock in figured walnut, cheekpiece removed in accordance with regulations. Lockplate signed "Manufacture Impériale de Versailles" with a hallmark, corrected to Year IX model 1777. Iron bayonet lug and ramrod. France. First Empire, circa 1808. See photos for condition. Very good condition and working order. See also plate No.

Dealer

Cartouche 12

Souvenirs Historiques et Tableaux

Mobile : 0688971349

Rue du Pin 46100 Figeac

Lunan 46100

23 by Lucien Rousselot, Member of La Sabretache. For the Horse Grenadiers of the Guard, 1804-1815. The question of firearms is not clarified; it is undeniable that the Horse Grenadiers were armed with a rifle and bayonet. Height: 1.44 meters. Mine measures 1.44 meters. France. First Empire.