PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Hague-decorated Tournai Porcelain Small Plate, Circa 1780

395 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Porcelain

Diameter : 18 cm

Height : 2.5 cm

Description

An eighteenth-century Hague (Den Haag) decorated Tournai porcelain small plate, circa 1780, with scalloped edge, central landscape with a building and figures, the lip decorated with baskets of flowers in gilt and enamel and gilt lace.Marks:Undergaze blue painted stork mark.Incised "6", "9", or "g".Measurements:Diameter: 18cm (7.1 in)Height: 2.5 cm (1.0 in)Condition: Excellent for age and type. Minimal wear to decoration and gilding, and no surface scratches or crazing. No restoration found under examination with ultraviolet light.Notes: Owned by the Lyncker family, the Hague (Den Haag) Porcelain Factory did not manufacture its own porcelain and instead decorated blanks it bought mainly from the Tournai and Ansbach factories. The decorating

Dealer

Lefays

Fine, affordable, art and antiques with excellent customer service

Mobile : +44 7772174440

Hare Lane,

Chard TA20

studio operated between 1776 and 1791 and marked its wares with a blue painted stork.Shipping: Free to most destinations. If your destination does not show free shipping, please ask.