Description

Exceptional size for this very large Siassi bowl. This prestigious item served two purposes: its everyday use as a bowl during ceremonial rites, and its function as a trade item between the tribes of the Tami and Siassi islands and those of other islands or the mainland coast. An exceptionally large specimen. Engraved tribal designs depicting totemic animals (fish, birds). Dense wood with used patina and discreet lacks. Approx. 108 x 56 x 26 cm / EUR1600 free shipping within Europe / USA upon request.
