Description

We are pleased to present this beautiful oil painting on canvas from the first half of the 20th century. This stunning, highly scenic painting unfolds in a long, horizontal format. The painting is signed at the bottom left by L. Boulnois, probably the French painter Lucien Boulnois (1887-1953), without authentic.A wild beach where the sea gently laps at the rocks, breaking its impetuous waves. Light plays a key role, probably at dawn, delicately filtering through the clouds, creating an atmosphere of extreme serenity. On the right, a sailing ship adds a distinctive touch to the scene. If you love the sea and its fantastic shades of color, you must add this beautiful painting to your collection.The painting is presented in a beautiful, recently crafted gilded wooden frame.Frame dimensions
