Description

Magnificent pair of mahogany Bergère armchairs. 19th century. High, slightly inclined backs for added comfort, upholstered, gracefully curved armrests. The scrolled armrest supports are adorned with stylized gilt palmettes and rest on carved column-shaped supports, which terminate in finely carved and gilded stylized chimera heads. These armchairs are in beautiful original condition, retaining their authentic charm and structural integrity. The upholstery (recently replaced) in black and gold tones with a stylized animal motif, such as griffins, adds a touch of elegance and refinement. These magnificent Bergère armchairs will fit perfectly into both modern and period interiors. These armchairs are both decorative and functional, adding a touch of historical elegance to your living space. They
